DAYS OF REGISTRATION.

June 6, 7, 13 and 14 at all Voting Places.

The registration last week brought out nearly three-fourths of the total vote, but there are many voters among the remaining fourth who seem to be almost criminally careless about attending to this very important duty. They are men who take but little interest in politics and are always indifferent about voting. If you belong to this class, for once arouse yourself and place yourself in a position to vote for the best interests of your country. We are to be confronted this year with issues upon which our patriotic citizen should hesitate to take sides. Questions of vital importance are to be voted upon and the good citizen who deliberately disfranchises himself by neglecting a public duty, will prove recreant to the trusts imposed upon the voting citizen, who must not only guard his own interests but in a measure be the custodian of the welfare of the non-voting elements of his community. If you have not registered you have neglected your duty to yourself, your family and to the widows and orphans about you. Officers are to be elected who have to deal with those classes, with the property interests of all the people and who will be charged with the protection of good law and the punishment of law-breakers. If you fail to vote for good men when such issues are at stake you fail to perform your duty as a citizen. Bear in mind you cannot vote unless you register and you cannot register after this week. Let nothing interfere until you have attended to this matter.

After three days of balloting at Carrollton, the Sixth District Convention nominated State Senator Worth W. Dickerson, of Grant county, to succeed Hon. John G. Carlisle in Congress. There were at the start about a dozen candidates, among them, Berry, of Campbell; Hallam, of O'Hara; of Kenton; Gaunt, of Grant; Dickerson, of Applegate; McCain, of others from the back counties. There were ninety-seven delegates, fifty, or a majority of them, being from the city counties of Campbell and Kenton. The split in Kenton which resulted in dividing Kenton between Hallam and O'Hara prevented the possibility of uniting on either of them. After the dropping of the hindmost names was begun the race soon narrowed down to Berry, Dickerson and Hallam. O'Hara had been withdrawn and was again brought out, but he could not unite enough city votes, even after Berry had dropped out, and the "country" carried off the nomination. The nominee is a slightly built, rather delicate young man, under forty years of age. He has an abundant crop of coal black hair and black piercing eyes. He has been prominent in the State Senate from his first entrance into it and two years ago was the author of the Dickerson Prison Bill now in force. He is bright, able and a good speaker. His nomination will give entire satisfaction and his friends predict that the handsome young Congressman will prove a worthy successor to the great statesman whose place he takes. The election takes place on Saturday, June 21.

Some time ago the town of Glasgow, Ky., showed signs of a coming boom, but the boom as well as the town has just received a very black eye, through the defeat of a proposition to erect a public school building by local tax## tion. This is more than a mistake. It is a stupid blunder. Ten years ago Hopkinsville had just such a light. This old fogies, the moss-backs and the chronic kickers opposed the issuing of $20,000 in bonds, but fortunately they were in a minority. The tax was voted, the schools were built and their benefits to the city cannot be estimated. To-day they are the pride of Hopkinsville, the boulds have been paid and hundreds of children have been educated from year to year. There are now no opponents to our Public Schools, but those who formerly tried to defeat their establishment now claim to be among their staunchest friends, since being convinced of their error. This action of the anti-progressive element of Glasgow's population shows that several faerals are needed in that town before it can hope for much prosperity.

THE TRIAL OF DR. BLACKHURST AND GRANT.

The Louisville physicians who were caught in the act of robbing a grave in Jeffersonville about three months ago, has been set for the 19th inst. in the Clark county, Indiana, Circuit Court. The case will attract a great deal of attention.

Several counties in Illinois were swept by a cyclone Wednesday. Near Birkbeck, in DeWitt county, a school house was blown down and five children injured. Many other persons were injured, but no lives were lost.

I believe it is all that is claimed for it. Persons afflicted by a cough or cold will find it a friend. There is no danger from whooping cough when this remedy is freely given. 50 cent bottles for sale by Buckner Leavelle."

TOBACCO NEWS.

LOUISVILLE MARKET.

(Published by Glover & Darrell, Louisville Tobacco Warehouse.)

Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 2,634 hhds., with receipts of 1,627 hhds. for the same period. Sales on our market since January 1st amount to 65,167 hhds. Sales on our market up to date of the crop of 1889, 36,769 hhds.

Our market this week has been firm and active, with an advancing tendency for the better grades of new dark leaf. The setting of the new crop is unusually small for the time of year and this fact is beginning to have its effect on the market.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for dark tobacco crop of 1888.

Trash $1 00 to 1 25.

Com. to med. leaf $1 50 to 2 50.

Dark rich leaf $2 50 to 4 50.

Com. leaf $3 50 to 4 50.

Med. to good leaf $4 50 to 5 50.

Good leaf ex. length $5 50 to 7 00.

Wrappery styles $7 50 to 12 00.

HOPKINSVILLE MARKET.

Sales by Hanbury & Shryer of 30 hhds. as follows:

1 hhd. selected leaf $10 00.

6 " good leaf $9 00 8 85, 8 30, 8 17 75, 6 00.

12 hhds. common leaf from $7 50 to $8 00.

11 hhds. lugs from $3 50 to 1 60.

Market firm.

Sales by Nat. Gather Co. of 41 hhds. as follows:

11 hhds. medium to good leaf from $6 00 to 7 00.

12 common to medium leaf from $4 50 to 5 00.

18 hhds. lugs from $1 25 to 3 00.

Market firm at last week's quotations.

Sales by Wheeler, Mills & Co., June 11, 30, of 63 hhds. tobacco as follows:

17 hhds. medium leaf $9 35, 7 60, 7 30, 7 25, 7 20, 7 15, 6 30, 6 50, 6 75, 6 25, 6 10, 6 00, 6 00, 6 00, 6 00, 6 00.

15 hhds. common leaf from $5 95 to 4 00.

10 hhds. good lugs from $4 00 to 2 25.

15 common and trash lugs from $2 00 to 75c.

The market was very strong, showing no decline on any grades and was somewhat higher on better grades of leaf and lugs. The present demand is based upon the consumptive demand and the general planting has not affected prices. Owing to the small supply of good tobacco it is probable this condition will continue throughout the season.

Catarrh Can't be Cured

with local Applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you have to take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh cure acts internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is no quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials free.

THE CRAFT.

Neal Glenn has sold out his interest in the Madisonville Hustler and gone to Springfield, Tenn., where he has embarked in the dry goods business.

The Madisonville Grip is now at all home print papers.

Arthur Ford is now doing the "In and Out Kentucky" column in the Courier-Journal and Will Hull has taken Joe Altschuler's place as financial editor during the latter's sojourn in Europe.

Just as sure as hot weather comes there will be more or less bowel complaint in this vicinity. Every person, and especially families, ought to have some reliable medicine at hand for instant use in case it is needed. A 25 or 50 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is just what you ought to have and all that you would need, even for the most severe and dangerous cases. It is the best, the most reliable and most successful treatment known and is pleasant to take. For sale by Buckner Leavelle.

CITY COURT NEWS.

Forest Hampton, col., breach of the peace, dismissed.

Bon Boyd, col., breach of the peace, acquitted.

H. W. Tibbs, obstructing street, fined $5 and costs.

The following item, clipped from the Ft. Madison (Iowa) Democrat, contains information well worth remembering: "Mr. John Roth, of this city, who met with an accident a few days ago spraining and bruising his leg and arm quite severely, was cured by one 50 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm." This remedy is without an equal for sprains and bruises and should be in every one's household. For sale by Buckner Leavelle.

How is it that minnows are soiled for so often and how few trout and black perch are caught with the minnows?

A Chance to Make Money.

Mr. Editor: I bought one of Griffith's machines for plating with gold, silver or nickel, and it works to perfection. No sooner did people hear of it than I had more orders, knives, forks and jewelry than I could plate in a month. The first week I cleared $31.30, the first month $167.85, and I think by July first I will have $1,000 cash and give my farm considerable attention, too. My daughter made $27.40 in four days. Any person can get out of these minnows by sending $3 to W. H. Griffith & Co., Zanesville, Ohio, or can obtain circulars by addressing them. You can learn to use the machine in one hour. As this is my first lucky streak, give my experience, hoping others may be benefited as much as I have been. Yours truly, M. O. MOREHEAD.

CHAMBERLAIN'S Eye and Skin Ointment.

A certain cure for Chronic Sore Eyes, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Old Chronic Sores, Fever Sores, Eczema, Itch, Prairie Scatiches, Sore Nipples and Fills. It is cooling and soothing. Hundreds of cases have been cured by its use and all other treatments have failed. 25 and 50 cent boxes for sale by Buckner Leavelle.

POETICAL HOG-WASH.

Mr. McSwat Proves a Great Success as a Literary Title.

Arrayed in a dressing-gown of Mrs. McSwat's manufacture, a garment ornamented with green horse grazing on a desert of tomato-colored sand, pre-historic birds of violent yellow and crimson flitting about in a rich vandyke-brown atmosphere, and an enormous Sky-terrier of pale lemon tint barking at an old gold moon, Mr. Billiger McSwat sat in his easy chair and looked over the columns of the Weekly Thunderbolt.

"What?"

Something displeasing had met the eye of Mr. McSwat.

"What is it, Billiger?" asked his wife.

"What outrageous rot for a literary paper to publish!" he exclaimed. "There is a long string of the worst doggerel I ever saw. Listen to this, Lobelia."

And he read the following:

"When earling ears oppress the mind, And life seems dead, 'tis almost dead, One comfort we can always find Ourseling hearts to cheer?"

Mrs. McSwat, nodding confusedly, she turned her head away and spoke in a strained voice:

"Why, Billiger, I don't see anything so very—"

"That's it!" he broke in, contemptuously. "These lines are anything but Li-tum, ti-tum, ti-tum, ti-tum, ti-tum, ti-tum! It's nothing but the machine variety of verse. I can take a coffee-mill and grind out a thundering sight better quality of poetry any day. Here's another stanza:

"Within the portals of that home Where love is ever embowered, No tribulations ever cause That—"

"Don't they?" snorted Mr. McSwat, fiercely.

"What does the goggle-eyed idiot that wrote that stuff know about the tribulations of life or any thing else? I wonder how he paid to get it published—or how much he paid. I'll bet a thousand dollars to a cent some cork-headed woman wrote it. Listen to this:

"Life is a wilderness whose bounds, Unfettered, roam—"

Confine us to such narrow bounds, Our joys and woes seem interlarded."

"Of all the poetical hog-wash I ever saw," ejaculated Mr. McSwat, in a high-pitched tone of withering contempt and indignation, "this is absolutely the worst. And there isn't an original idea in it. I've seen it all before somewhere. What gibbering fool ever—Lobelia, what makes you look so strange? Is it possible you—but no! You never wrote such villainous stuff as this, Lobelia?"

"Is it so very bad, Billiger?" faltered Mrs. McSwat, with face still averted.

"Unfettered, roam," she repeated. "It's the silliest of idiocy! 'Our joys and woes seem interlarded.' Horrible! It's enough to distract a cyclone or drive Francis Murphy to drink! You—you surely never wrote it, Lobelia!"

"No, Billiger, I never," Mrs. McSwat, in a low, pained voice. "I didn't write it, but I sent it to the editor of the Thunderbolt. I thought it would sound familiar, but I expected it to be a pleasant surprise."

"Will you mean, Lobelia?"

"I found it among some of your old papers, Billiger. You wrote it yourself for a school exhibition about fifteen years ago."

When Mr. McSwat started up-town by way of the back alley a few minutes later his clothes had a curious feeling of being about four sizes too large for him.—Chicago Tribune.

ANCIENT REMEDIES.

Medical Directions to Patients That Were Delightfully Comprehensive.

The old-time physician administered heroic remedies, and usually began his treatment of any case by opening a vein in the patient's arm, and bleeding him copiously. Among the directions left by him, none was more imperative than that fever patients should not be allowed cold water, and he would have a perfect genius for compounding nauseous mixtures. A sketch of "The Hundredth Town" incorporated in Massachusetts gives some interesting characteristics and methods of Doctor Hall, who practiced there in the first half of this century. His directions to his patients were delightfully comprehensive.

"Take a little of this 'ere and a tittle of that air," he would say, "put in a jug before the fire, stir it up with your flint finger, and take it when you are warm, hot, cold, or feverish."

One of his recipes is absolutely appalling to the imagination. Here it is, ready to be poised by those who have both charity and courage:

Green Tobacco, Henbane, Chamomile, Cloves, Mustard, Bitter Sweet Root, Melilot, Yellow Pond Lily Root, Night Shade, Heartsease, Duck Leaves, Plantain Leaves, St. John's Wort, Mouse Ear, Garlicke, Confrey Leaves, Rude of Walnut, Old David's Weed, Garden Scoury Grass, Flaxseed Elder, Hensfoot Catnip, Carpenter Weed, Marsh Malva, Chelidonia, Pennywort, Yarrow, Lawlawn, Gent Root Leaves."

One day a patient, having doubtless drunk the full bitterness of such a prescription, said to him: "What the need of so many different things, doctor?"

"Well," was the reply, "if you are going to shoot a bird, you use plenty of shot. Some of these things are pretty sure to hit the case."

A young physician, however, who moved into the town in the new doctor's day, found an answer to this illustration.

"Tell the old doctor," said he, to some one who quoted it, "that nowadays we don't use abutagens. We use rifles."—Youth's Companion.

Once Deeper Vegetable.

Some paper, speaking of the tomato crop, says: "In 75,000,000 cans 'were put up this year past' and refers to the old times when the tomato was called the 'love apple,' and held about as far a match for 'ground cherries' as food for man or beast. Mr. R. R. Sulgrave, the oldest vendor in the town, says he remembers seeing when a boy, in 1835 or thereabouts, several stacks or bushes of 'love apples' growing on the north side of Market street, near Delaware, in the garden of John Wilkins or 'Archibald' Livingston. They were not called 'tomatoes,' and nobody thought of eating them more than 'jimson hurn.' They were not commonly grown, even for garden ornament, and it was a half score of years later before they came into vogue as a vegetable. But he remembers that some of the doctors of that day recommended them as a healthful thing to eat, and the new name 'tomato' became familiar. Fifty years or more ago this was the same old food value of the tomato, now more often and generally used, and in more times than any other garden product whatever.—Indianapolis News.

CREAM OF NEWS.

Died of his injuries.

Jno. Yates, a 17-year-old colored boy who fell from the roof of a house near Church Hill last week, died of his injuries after four days of great suffering. Yates was thrown against a sharp iron spike in the fall, ripping his body open in a frightful manner.

Mr. Yancy's Second Loss.

Some weeks ago a thief entered Mr. J. W. Yancy's cash drawer and secured several dollars. On Tuesday a similar theft was committed and $10 in silver taken. Mr. Yancy has been unable to secure any evidence that would convict, although he strongly suspects certain parties, and in future a sharper look-out will be kept.

A Storm.

A wind and rain storm passed over the city Wednesday night, about 9 o'clock. No damages were done in the city or county, so far as heard from. The storm was so severe at Evansville that the railroad superintendent sent a message along the line cautioning all conductors to run slowly where trees were near enough to be blown across the track.

A Daring Thief.

One day last week a Mr. Cave Johnson, accompanied by a young lady, while returning home from the city and when near Mr. P. P. Puffman's mill, was overtaken by a colored man who attempted to rob his buggy of several hundred of goods which were placed in the rear of the buggy seat. Mr. Johnson discovered the would-be thief in time to prevent the theft, but was unarmed and could not detain the bold fellow who made his escape.

Crushed Every Bone.

A brakeman named P. Pointer fell upon the track at Crofton Monday and was run over and instantly killed. Three loaded cars passed over his body, rolling it several feet and mashing every bone to a pulp. He was attempting to set a brake when the brakeway way throwing him upon the track below and between the rapidly moving cars. He was on a through run. His remains were shipped to his home, near Louisville, Monday night.

The Postoffice Fight.

The nomination of Mrs. Wright as postmaster at this place has been "hung up" in the Senate and the case is to be re-opened and another hearing given to Maj. Breathitt. This is the news that comes from Washington, through the daily papers. Mrs. Wright and Maj. Breathitt are both at home and the case, it is understood, is to be decided upon the papers entirely. As the change does not take place until July 19, the case may remain in its present shape for two or three weeks.

MATRIMONIAL.

Mr. Walter Allen and Miss Rena Rogers, of the Wilson precinct, were married on the 4th by Esq. Ferguson.

A Maine couple courted thirty years, and they decided on their wedding so suddenly, that they had to arouse a preacher at midnight to tie the knot.

Mr. Joe Daniel, of this county, tied himself to Trigg county on the fat last, and was married to Miss Sallie Cunningham, of that county. He was in town one day this week with his bride, which was his first matrimony received here that he had committed matrimony in the first degree.

A Birmingham preacher stopped in the middle of his sermon to marry a runaway couple who rushed up the aisle and asked to be married quick. The old man was in hot pursuit and the knot was tied just in time. J. W. Vanderbilt and Flora McCarty, a fifteen-year-old girl, were the contracting parties.

Mr. J. C. Coward, of Cadiz, and Miss Mattie Daniels, of this county, were married at the residence of Mrs. Pettus, in New Providence, Tenn., yesterday afternoon. Mr. Coward is one of the most promising and popular young merchants in Cadiz and his bride is a beautiful and accomplished young lady, who was educated at Bethel Female College in this city. They will return to Cadiz to-day.

Mr. L. V. Murphy, of Shelby, Miss., and Miss Mollie McRae, daughter of Mr. R. K. McRae, of Paducah, were united in marriage at the Southern Hotel in this city, Tuesday, Rev. J. W. Lewis officiating. Mr. Murphy was formerly night operator at this place and he now holds agent and operator at Shelby, Miss. This is his second marriage, his first wife, a sister of the present one, having died three years ago. Parental objections caused the elopement. The couple, accompanied by three children who have been making their home with their grand parents since the death of their mother, left for their future home Tuesday night.

Mr. Oscar E. Layne and Miss Lillie Fulcher, both of Fairview, eloped to Clarksville this week and were married. They returned Wednesday morning and left at once for Fairview. The elopement was quite a surprise to their friends. Mr. Layne is a member of the prosperous mercantile firm of Layne Bros., of Fairview, and is a handsome, popular and very worthy young gentleman. His bride is a pretty and fascinating blonde and one of the belles of the eastern portion of the county. She has frequently visited at Mr. A. W. Pyle's, in this city, and spent several days here last week. The Kentuckian congratulates the happy young couple and wishes for them a long life of felicity and prosperity.

The Brame case comes up again in the Criminal Court at Nashville Monday.

Mr. Walter Kelly is making quite an addition to his residence on North Main street.

To-morrow is the last day to register. If you want to vote don't lose this last opportunity.

Dr. Jno. A. Gumi's residence has been newly painted. It is greatly improved in appearance.

Children's Day will be observed at the C. P. Church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. All are invited.

Rev. W. L. Nourse delivered the commencement sermon for the Clarksville University last Sunday night.

The farmers have had another splendid season for setting tobacco plants, and it is probable that the entire crop is set.

Sam Hostet's condition is much improved, and if there is no back up he will be able to be removed to his home by the 20th.

Purify your blood with Dr. P. T. Rogers' ideal Alternative, sanctioned by physicians of Hopkinsville. For sale only by Rogers & Elgin. This.

The raspberry, which is preferred by a great many persons to all berries, promises to some extent to make up in quantity the shortness of the strawberry.

The Flack house is being moved by J. J. Austin and will be rolled into the streets and started on its journey to the old fair grounds, a distance of a mile or more, this week.

Mrs. J. W. Rust will leave the college in a few days and will either make her home in this city, Clarksville or Trenton. Rev. John O. Rust and wife will go to Louisville to live.

The shooting match between the Hopkinsville and Bellevue clubs at the Driving Park to-morrow, and the barbecue promise to be quite a success. Several races will also be run.

Judge Winfree has appointed Mr. Wm. H. West constable in the new Hopkinsville district No. 2. He has qualified and is a candidate for election in August and will probably have no opposition.

The wheat harvest will soon be at hand, and from the number of new machines which have been carried into the country this week, one would naturally suppose that everybody has raised a crop.

The sidewalks made of cement are certainly the prettiest in the city. The past winter was not severe enough to test their durability. If they will stand cold weather, nothing else should be used.

Query: If an unusual local yield of wheat does not affect the price of flour, why should the price be advanced when the crop is short? This may not be the case this year, but we have known it to be that way in the past.

Christian county was especially honored in the selection of speakers for the Bethel College commencement at Russellville this week. Rev. John O. Rust was chosen to deliver the Alumni address, but was unable to do so on account of the death of his father. Rev. R. N. Barrett, of Fairview, was also selected as poet and was probably on hand and in a very poetic frame of mind.

The funeral of the late Prof. J. W. Rust was attended by a crowd Tuesday that filled the Baptist church to overflowing. The main discourse was preached by the venerable Dr. Sears of Clarksville. This was followed by short talks by Revs. Lockett, of Trenton; Forgy, of Elmo; Keudall, of Casky, and Rev. Thos. Bottomley, of this city. After the services at the church were concluded, a long procession of sorrowing friends followed the body to its last resting place in our beautiful cemetery.

Last winter Hon. Wm. Wharton secured a place for Henry Lawrence, a Cadiz boy, as page in the House. He was a bright, well behaved boy, and carefully saved his money, thereby setting an excellent example to some of the Representatives who had to borrow money to get home with Wharton and brought with him $200, after paying his board and other expenses out of his per diem of $3. He turned the money over to his mother, a widow with but small means of support, who invested it in a little home for herself and family in the town of Cadiz.

Below we publish the result of the election of Town Trustees, City Judge and Town Marshal Monday. The vote was unusually small, from the fact that very few of the citizens remembered that it was election day: City Judge, James E. Burnett; Town Marshal, J. W. Pool; Town Trustees, J. W. Croushaw; M. S. Thompson; John G. Jefferson; Fenton Sims, H. B. Wilkinson, and R. A. Barnett. This is one instance in which the officers sought the men. None of the above mentioned gentlemen had any opposition, and none of them sought the positions to which they were elected.—Cadiz Telephone.

A CAR LOAD OF PICNICKERS OFF FOR RED RIVER.

Where They Will Spend the Day Fanned by Cooling Breezes

And Serenaded by the Musical Pestiferous "Skeeters."

The following named ladies and gentlemen—sixty-eight in number—will leave the city in a special car, this morning at 5 o'clock. The car will be attached to the regular accommodation train, which will leave on schedule time. The objective point is Red River bridge, six miles from Guthrie, on the L. & N. road.

GENTLEMEN.

CHAPELTON.

Mr. and Mrs. James Benthitt, Mrs. Clarence Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Wood, Mrs. Nat. Gailther, and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wilgus.

Every arrangement has been perfected to make the occasion a most enjoyable one, and should the weather be favorable those who avail themselves of this opportunity to spend the day in the woods will never regret it. In fact these pleasure excursions should be more frequent, for there is nothing more calculated to prolong life and keep the wrinkles of care and perplexity off the countenance of busy men, sweeten the disposition of faithful housewives, and make our young ladies amiable, cozy and happy than a day now and then in the country. And what an appetite it gives one! Though it has been asserted that Byron once said "eating is vulgar," it is safe to say that he never enjoyed a picnic, and didn't know what it was to eat a good, square meal when he was hungry.

"Man eats to live and lives to eat," is more of a truism than "Ma Lord" Byron banded down to us people. Yes, let those social occasions come often.

Flood's Sarsaparilla has the largest sale of any medicine before the public. Any honest druggist will confirm this statement.

Eliza Williams, col. and Police-man Chas. Ruffin, col., arrested Wednesday charging him with assault, in rubbing and otherwise beating her. Ruffin's testimony showed that she was disorderly and he only ordered her to keep quiet and did not strike her. As there were no knots or bruises about her head Judge Winfree dismissed the case.

John Mitchell, a newly married man at Fordville, Ky., told both marriage and life failure and committed suicide Tuesday.

The L. & N. is having new iron sewer pipe put in at the Ninth street crossing and leveling up the surrounding ground—a much needed improvement.

There is a falling off of 25 per cent. in the number of arrests up to the present time as compared with last month, and business in police circles is very dull.

Everybody Knows.

That at this season the blood is filled with impurities, the accumulation of months of close confinement in poorly ventilated stores, workshops and tenements. All these impurities and every trace of scrofula, salt rheum, or other disease may be expelled by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier ever produced. It is the only medicine of which 100 doses one dollar is true.

The Public School Trustees meet to-night to elect a superintendent and eleven teachers for the fall session. All of the present teachers are applicants for re-election and there are quite a number of other applicants as well.

Several residences on the south side of Sixteenth street have recently been raised 2 feet or more and underpinned with brick. This part of the town has been filled up a good deal since the older houses were built and this elevating process was found necessary to get above the street level.

Misses Julia Arnold, Albertine Wallis, Inez Ellis, Nannie Barbour, Olio Dlythe, Mary Bell and Lillie Price successfully passed the teachers' examination last week at the Public School building. The two first named attained unusually high averages, although the examination was very rigid and comprehensive. Miss Wallis, who ranked second in the list, was educated almost entirely at the Public schools and the very successful examination she passed is not only creditable to her but is a high tribute to the excellence of our schools under their present management.
